If you are looking for a family concert series, look no further. The San Francisco Chamber Orchestra presents Family Concerts, features youth music schools and ensembles in the Bay Area playing with professionals. Participating groups include the San Francisco School of the Arts, the Crowden School, the Palo Alto Chamber Orchestra, and the Oakland School for the Arts.

The next concert (#3) in the 2010/2011 series – Voices around the World – features Cantare Con Vivo's youth choir, Nova, and the Vallejo Choral Society's youth choir, Campanelli in a concert of songs from around the world.

Admission is free. Tickets may also be available at the door but it is best to reserve seats. Reserve online, or call 415-692-3367 to make your reservation by phone.
